Gentlemen:

I never knew that it would be a pleasurable experience to build a building. Thanks to you and your people it proved to be a hassle free, interesting project.

Your knowledge, honesty and reliability made it a real joy and gave us enough peace of mind to be able to continue our day to day operations without having to abandon any of the aspects of our business.

Your concern and attention to the minimum details went, many times, beyond what was spelled out in the contract. Your people were always ready to cooperate with us every step of the way.

For the many years that I have known you there has never been a moment in which I have questioned your competency and your quality of performance. We pride ourselves in our association with your company and our friendship with you. We give our highest marks to your workmanship and highly recommend you to anyone that needs a reliable, good builder.

With my best regards,

Bofill - President
